THE LOUISVILLE COURSER -This paper attempts to justify the use, by its meeting on DOUGLAS, THE SQUATTER TRAITIF" Nothing better should have been expected from the prompted organ of an Administration which if it should live for a century in sackcloth and ashes, could not atone for the crimes it has commutted in betraving its party and in plundering the nation.

The Courier has declared war against the Southern supporters of Hanglas and John son, proclaiming that it has drawn its sword against them aul turown away the scab cept against the sauce sless of its wearer has never been string I except with the blood of those who trusted to it for their defense. The Conrier, like the pirate Hicks, always enlists on board the ship before i undertakes to as an instribe crew. It has never acted with a party that it did not make safer by its desertion

It is natural that this paper, which so re cently raged for emancipation in Kentucky should now malign and villify one of the truest friends and the most powerful allie that the South has found in the North It is natural that this paper, which so re cently howled with agony over the repeal of the so-called Mi sonti l'ampromise, shoulstill yell for Congressional intervention. It is fit that this paper, which has vainly triel a thousand will experiments and reckless expedients to become a leader, should close its vagational career in the Innacy of disunion In the name of the battonal Democrats of Kemucky, we tender thanks to the Courier for having reher I them from the imputation of its friendship and the mond as of ale support.

The editor of the Princeton Enlletin says there are but three papers in Kentucky that support boughes, so far as he has been able to learn. The editor doesn't read the
